Vermont Licensed Land Surveyors - Numerical Order

The following is a list of all Vermont licensed Land Surveyors, past and present. The first listing is numerically by license number and the second alphabetically by last name, including the licensees last known town or city of residence. This list was compiled with the assistance of the Office of Professional Regulation, Secretary of State's Office web-site. We ask for your assistance and cooperation in notifying VLS of any errors or changes so this list may be kept up-to-date. Individuals known to be deceased are indicated in italics. To learn if any individual's license is current you must contact the Office of Professional Regulation, telephone 802.828.2191 or check their web-site www.vtprofessionals.org/opr1/surveyors/.

Vermont Society of Land Surveyors, Inc.

By-Laws

ARTICLE I: Name

The name of the organization shall be:

Vermont Society of Land Surveyors, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the Society.

ARTICLE II: Object.

The Society is a nonprofit organization whose objectives shall be:

- A. To advance the sciences of surveying and mapping in their branches, in furtherance of the public welfare and in the interests of both those who use maps and surveys and those who make them, and to establish a central source of reference and union for its members.
- B. To contribute to public education in the use of surveys and maps and to encourage the prosecution of basic surveying and mapping programs.
- C. To establish and maintain uniformly high professional standards of work and ethics in the practice of surveying and mapping.

ARTICLE III: Membership.

A. Full Member. Full Membership shall be open to any person who is a land surveyor licensed by the State of Vermont whose application, filed in the proper manner, has been approved by the Executive Committee.

B. Associate Member. Any person interested in surveying and mapping who might not qualify for other membership. Associate members shall enjoy the same rights and privileges as full members, except that they shall have no vote in Society proceedings, nor be eligible to serve as officers

C. Student Member. Any full-time student in civil engineering, forestry, land surveying, geodesy, mapping, or other related field whose application, filed in the proper manner, has been approved by the Executive Committee. Student members shall enjoy the same rights and privileges as Full members, except they shall have no vote in Society proceedings, nor be eligible to serve as officers.

D. Sustaining Member. Any individual or firm desiring to support the aims and objectives of the Society, who may or may not be entitled to one of the foregoing classes of membership, whose application, filed in the proper manner, has been approved by the Executive Committee. Sustaining members shall not be eligible to vote or hold any office in the Society; however, if a sustaining member also holds another class or other classes of membership, the sustaining member class shall not infringe upon such rights and privileges.

E. Honorary Member. Honorary membership may be awarded by vote of the Executive Committee to any person who has actively shown interest and assisted in the promotion of the object and purpose of the Society. Honorary members shall enjoy the same rights and privileges as Full members, except they shall have no vote in Society proceedings, nor be eligible to serve as officers. Honorary members shall be exempt from all dues and assessments.

F. Emeritus Member. Emeritus membership may be awarded by a two-thirds vote of the entire Executive Committee to any member over the age of 62 who has been a member in good standing for a minimum of ten years and has exhibited meritorious service to the profession and the Society. Emeritus members shall enjoy the same rights and privileges as Full members, but shall be exempt from all dues and assessments.

G. Life Member. Life membership may be granted by vote of the Executive Committee to any Full Member 65 years old or older who has held a current dues card as a Full Member for 15 consecutive years immediately preceding, and who requests in writing to be granted the status of Life Member. Life members shall enjoy all the rights and privileges as Full members, and dues shall be 50% of Full Member dues. Additionally, Life Members shall be granted a 25% discount on all VSLs Education Programs. Current Life Members shall also be eligible for the 25% Education Program discount. This article shall become effective with dues year 2009.

Vermont Society of Land Surveyors, Inc. By-Laws

H. Out-of-State Member. Members of out-of-state Land Surveyors Associations may apply for membership under this category, subject to the following qualifications and restrictions:

1. The Applicant shall be an individual interested in land surveying, registered or non-registered, who is not residing in Vermont and is not practicing Land Surveying full-time in Vermont.
2. The Applicant shall belong to their home State Association or Society, as a member in the same category applied for (A, B, C) or equivalent. Proof of current membership shall accompany an application or renewal.
3. The Applicant's home State Association or Society must offer a similar arrangement through their By-Laws, to VSLS members.
4. The Member shall not have voting privileges in the Society.
5. The Member shall not hold any office in the Society.
6. The Member shall enjoy all Society benefits, publications and seminars.
7. The Member's dues shall be 50% of the regular dues of the category approved for membership.

I. Expulsion from Membership. A member in any classification may be expelled or suspended from the Society by a two-thirds vote of the entire Executive Committee. Grounds for expulsion shall be:

1. Willful disregard of the Society's principles and purposes.
2. Violation of the Society's Canon of Ethics.
3. Conduct detrimental to the Society's welfare.
4. Conviction of a felony.
5. Revocation or suspension of a member's license.

The member shall receive a written copy of the charges against him or her, and shall have the right of hearing before the Executive Committee before final action is taken. A person whose membership has been revoked under this section may be reinstated only upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IV: Dues.

- A. An application fee of $5.00 shall accompany each application for membership.
- B. Annual dues for all classes of membership shall be due and payable on the first of January of each year.
- C. Annual dues for the several classes of membership shall be as follows:
